

Where controller classes are housed. They are as intermediaries between the functionality within the model and the GUI

The view that a user sees, i.e. the GUI (graphical user interface). This is where both admins and general users will be using the system

Used to access IndexDB and manipulate it as needed..

